4. Justification

The increase in charges to exporters of products of animal origin to the EU for the issuing of export health certificates is to ensure full cost recovery. The current fees do not reflect the resource required to issue the certificates and hence do not represent full cost recovery. The revised charges align with current charges for exports to non EU countries. Current charges for non EU exporters do not have any impact on exporters and it is therefore not anticipated that aligning the charges for EU exports with non EU exports will have any relevant impacts.
