

Learner Awards and Accreditation

Community Learning and Development Service (CLD)

July 2021

*Community Learning and Development
Changing Lives Strengthening Communities*

Accreditation and awards contribute to the skills and knowledge which allow us to be more independent and confident, to be better family and community members, ready to work and live life to the full

Young People Awards and Accreditation

The following awards are made available to young people through Aberdeenshire Council

- Duke of Edinburgh's Award
- Dynamic Youth Awards
- John Muir Award
- Hi5 Awards
- Saltire Awards
- Prince's Trust Achieve
- Participatory Democracy Certificate
- Youth Achievement Awards
- Young Scot Award
- PX2® and Mindbuzz

For more information on young people's awards or accreditation contact douglas.findlay@aberdeenshire.gov.uk

Adults Awards and Accreditation

SQA Core Skills Core Skills are five skills that are key to learning and working in today's world.

- SQA Core Skills Communication
- SQA Core Skills Numeracy
- SQA Core Skills Information/
- Communication/ Technology (ICT)
- SQA Core Skills Problem Solving
- SQA Core Skills Working with Others
- SQA Employability
- SQA ESOL English for Speakers of Other Languages
- SQA Mental Health
- SQA Volunteers
- Adult Achievement Award (AAA)
- STEPS

For more information on adult awards or accreditation contact lada.copic@aberdeenshire.gov.uk